Santa Clara Teammates Join Raging Tide

OLD ORCHARD BEACH, ME- The Old Orchard Beach Raging Tide has announced the signing of Outfielder Kert Woods and Pitcher Evan Brisentine of Santa Clara University.

As a member of the West Coast Conference, the signing of Woods and Brisentine mark yet another top tier Division 1 program joining the Raging Tide organization in 2013.

Sophomore Pitcher Evan Brisentine comes to the Raging Tide as a native of San Ramon, California. Brisentine attended California High School and amassed a 6-1 record with 88 strikeouts in 70 innings pitched during his senior season, while also capturing First-Team All-League and Third-Team All-East Bay honors.

Freshman Kert Woods is entering his first year in Collegiate Baseball as he comes to the Bronco's after a stellar career at Buhach Colony High School. Woods hit .350 as a senior with 38 runs scored, 19 RBI, 18 walks and 29 Stolen Bases. He was named First-Team All-CCC as well as First-Team All-District before committing to Santa Clara.

The Old Orchard Beach Raging Tide compete in the Futures Collegiate Baseball League of New England, for more information visit www.thefuturesleague.com.

Opening Night for the Raging Tide begins at 7:00pm on Thursday, June 6th at The Ballpark in Old Orchard Beach against the Seacoast Mavericks. The Raging Tide recently announced a season ticket partnership with the Mavericks where season ticket holders will receive free admission to all 7 Seacoast away games.
