10 East Grand Avenue, Entertaining & Dancing.

This Special Town Council Meeting is being held to deal with the Special Amusement Permit deferred from last night's meeting. The Council will consider the Special Amusement Permit for Mimi Vattes & Danny Sisson dba/The Galaxy (306-5-4), 10 East Grand Avenue, Entertaining & Dancing. It should be noted that Mr. Sisson provided a check (Check Number 617813) in the amount of $7,580, owed to the Town for services provided last year. Councilor MacDonald indicated that she felt there should be some stipulation that Mr. Sisson needed to make his manpower requirements to the Police Department at least a week ahead of the time needed for a Police Officer. Vice Chairman O'Neill indicated he was in favor of approving this Special Event Permit because Mr. Sisson had met his obligation. He did remind everyone that doing business in Old Orchard Beach is a privilege and should be considered just that. Councilor Frenette indicated that this is a Special Event Permit not a Business License and we can't hold up on the issues that have been suggested. Councilor O'Neill indicated that the action the Council took with the new ordinance and restrictions indicates that we have done due diligence. Chairman Long reminded the business owner that the authority of the Council permits them to suspend or revoke a license if issues are raised that are detrimental to the betterment of the community and safety issues as well.

MOTION: Councilor O'Neill motioned and Councilor Frenette seconded to approve the Special Event Permit for Mimi Vattes & Danny Sisson dba/The Galaxy (306-5-4), 10 East Grand Avenue, Entertaining & Dancing.
