

WHAT'S UP OOB?!

Here's what's happening in OOB!

Update for April 10th, 2021

Town Information:

- While we are all hopeful that the pandemic is starting to get more manageable we want you to remember about these two resources. The Vaccine Information Line is available for residents to call Monday through Friday from 8–5. The number is 866-962-6062. This is NOT to schedule vaccine appointments but to provide answers to questions you may have about the vaccine. Also OOB residents can still call the OOB COVID ASSISTANCE LINE, staffed from 9AM to 3PM Monday through Friday, to assist you with any non-emergency needs. That number is 934-0860.
- Town Meetings scheduled for the second half of April are Conservation Commission meeting at 7PM Monday 4/12 and a Town Council meeting on Tuesday 4/13 at 6:30PM in the Town Hall Council Chambers.
- The new message board is up and running at the Town Hall! This is one more way for OOB residents to get information about what is happening here in town. Check it out next time you are downtown.
- Community Animal Watch is looking for new members. If you would like to help this important group continue their work please contact Kim McLaughlin at the Town Hall at 934-5714.
- There will be a free rabies clinic held on Saturday 4/26 from 9-12 at the Animal Welfare Society 46 Holland Rd Kennebunk. Please be sure your dog is wearing a collar and leash and if you have their last rabies certificate please bring it with you.
- The Community Friendly Connection will be holding a meeting on May 5th at 5:30 at Oceanwood 17 Royal Street in Ocean Park. Please plan to join us as we make plans for the coming year.

- The Maine Center on Aging and Elder Abuse Institute of Maine are sponsoring a photo contest. Focus on Real Aging in Maine (FRAME) will celebrate diverse aging experiences here in Maine! You can submit your photo, that shows one or more Mainers age 50 and above, by registering at <http://bit.ly/FRAMEam> for amateurs and <http://bit.ly/FRAMEpro> for professional photographers. The deadline for submission is May 9th. Seven winners picked, and the there are cash and gift prizes!
 - Libby Library wants to let everyone know about a couple of great virtual programs happening in the month of April. First is a poetry reading by Helen Rousseau April 22nd at 6:30 and on April 27th at 6:30 an early history of Moosehead Lake. You can contact the library about getting registered for these presentations.
 - Something to look forward to - the OOB 365 Scottish Festival will be returning for the first weekend in June! More details will be given in future What's Up recordings as we get closer to the date.
 - Volunteers are needed to take water samples through the summer at different locations in OOB and Ocean Park. Collections will be Tuesday mornings from Memorial Day to Labor Day and should take less than an hour. Maine Healthy Beaches will provide training. If you are interested please contact Chris White at OOB Wastewater, 934-4416.
 - For anyone who is in need of help with food here are 3 available options. The Salvation Army offers emergency food as well as twice-weekly prepared meals to go. Please call 934-4381 for more information & leave a call back number if you reach the message machine. The Community Food Pantry at 155 Saco Ave is open Monday 2-5 and Tuesday and Thursday 9-12, and can be reached at 937-8094. The United Methodist Food pantry at 6 Fountain Ave is open Wednesday 9-11. Their contact number is 210-4115.
- Remember to check back for new updates and keep an eye on the new message board at town hall!
