

WHAT'S UP OOB?!

Here's what's happening in OOB!

Week of May 9th, 2022

Town Business:

- Thank You and Best Wishes to Chief Kelley on his retirement after almost 50 years of service to our town!
- The Conservation Commission will hold a meeting on Monday May, 9th at 7:00PM in the Town Hall Council Chambers.
- The Planning Board is holding a meeting on Thursday May, 12th at 6:30PM in the Town Hall Council Chambers.
- Road work has begun for the reclaim & sewer project on West Grand between Pavia and Union Avenues. Please plan for detours and road closures in the area.
- Parking meters begin May 1st. Parking permits are available. Permits will no longer be hang tags and instead an electronic scan of your license plate will be done to issue your parking permit. Find out more at oobmaine.com or by calling the Town Clerk's office.

The Libby Memorial Library:

- The library continues to offer Infant and Toddler Story time on Tuesdays at 10am and Preschool Story & Craft time on Wednesdays at 10am. These programs are presented virtually on the library Facebook page

Community Opportunities:

- Pre-K and Kindergarten Registration. Is May 19th. Pre-K is 5:30p-6:00p, and kindergarten is 6:00p-6:30p at the Jameson School

- Hazardous Waste Day Saturday May 14th from 8-12 at the Scarborough Public Works, 20 Washington Street. Open to OOB residents with proof of residency. Properly dispose of batteries furniture polish and other cleaning materials and paint.
- The Community Friendly Committee is getting ready for planting for the Pollinator Gardens. If you are interested in volunteering for this project please contact our volunteer coordinator Judy at jobrien8@maine.rr.com

Check back next Monday for more happenings and events.

Have a great week!
