

WHAT'S UP OOB?!

Here's what's happening in OOB!

Week of February 14th, 2022

Town Government:

- The Conservation Commission will hold a meeting on Monday February 14th at 7PM in the Town Hall Council Chambers.
- The Town Council will hold their regular meeting on Tuesday February 15th at 6:30PM in the Town Hall Council Chambers.

The Libby Memorial Library:

- The library will be hosting a Tiny Art show during the month of March. All town residents of every age can submit a piece of tiny art for the show! Come and pick up a free kit, which includes a 3x3 canvas, paints and a brush, and create your masterpiece. Return your artwork by February 19th so it can be displayed in the show.
- The Community Friendly Making Memories Project interviews have been compiled into a wonderful video presentation and are now available. Don't miss this opportunity to learn about the history of Old Orchard Beach from our friends and neighbors who lived it. You can find these interviews on the library website under the archives tab or on YouTube ( search for OOB Making Memories)

Community Opportunities:

- OOB 365's Winter Carnival is returning! Friday February 25th and Saturday February 26th Old Orchard Street will be transformed into a giant sledding hill! Come down and enjoy music and food, pony rides and a petting zoo.

- Community Friendly Committee (CFC) is looking for volunteers for a variety of opportunities. If you can help please go to the CFC link on the town webpage or call 207-937-5626 for more information.

Check back next Monday for more happenings and events.
Have a great week!
