

WHAT'S UP OOB?!

Here's what's happening in OOB!

Week of January 3rd, 2022

Town Government:

- The Town Council will hold a regular meeting on Tuesday January 4th at 6:30 PM in the Town Hall Council Chambers.
- Transfer station winter hours are Monday - Friday 7:30 to 2:30 and Saturday 8-4

The Libby Memorial Library:

- The January Book Club meeting will be Wednesday January 5th at 6PM in the library. The book selection for January is Once There Were Wolves by Charlotte McConaghy. Call or stop by to reserve your copy 207-934-4351
- The Community Friendly Making Memories Project interviews have been compiled into a wonderful video presentation which will be available January 5th. Students from the Loranger School and older OOB citizens discussed our Town as they remember it. Don't miss this opportunity to learn about the history of Old Orchard Beach from our friends and neighbors who lived it.

Community Opportunities:

- SMAA, the Southern Maine Agency on Aging, is offering a variety of programs for the winter months. These range from yoga and other exercise programs to conversation groups, and there are virtual offerings as well as in person classes. Call 207-396-6578 for more information and a full schedule.

Check back next Monday for more happenings and events.

Have a great week!
