

WHAT'S UP OOB?!

Here's what's happening in OOB!

Week of October 4th, 2021

Town Government:

- The Town Council will meet twice this week. Their regular meeting is Tuesday October 5th and the Special Session will be Thursday October 7th. Both meetings begin at 6:30PM and will be held in the Town Hall Council Chambers.
- The OOB Police Department is offering a winter text alert service to inform residents of school closings and parking bans. Please email them with your cell phone number and carrier as well as if you are a business or individual.
- A reminder that parking meters, at street slots and in the lots, will be enforced through October 11th. All town parking passes will be good through October 11th.

The Libby Memorial Library:

- The October book club will meet this Wednesday October 6th at 6PM to discuss This Is How It Always Is by Laurie Frankel. The meeting will be held outside on the lawn.
- The Friends of the Library end of the season book sale will be held from 10-3 on Saturday October 9th (rain date is Sunday the 10th). The Book Shed will close for the season following this sale.
- The Library continues to look for volunteers. Hours are flexible but they are asking for at least a 3 month commitment. If you are interested please call the library at 207 934-4351

Community Opportunities:

- OOB 365's Trail of Terror at Aquaboggin is up and running. This year's dates are October 1-2, 8-10, 15-16, 22-23, and 29-31.

Tickets can be purchased now at oob365.com or at the gate. Cost for the event is $20 for adults and $10 for children under 10. This year they have added a Madness Maze and the Maine Kitchen Food Truck will be on site.

Check back next Monday for more happenings and events.
Have a great week!
