

WHAT'S UP OOB?!

Here's what's happening in OOB!

Week of November 8th, 2021

Town Government:

- The Planning Board will meet Tuesday November 9th at 6:30 PM in the Town Hall Council Chambers.
- OOB Police Department is looking for housing for their seasonal officers for the 2022 season, which runs from mid-May to mid-October. If any community members have information on available housing please call Captain Elise Chard at 207-937-5802

The Libby Memorial Library:

- The November Book Club will meet Tuesday the 9th at 6PM to discuss The Cold Millions by Jess Walter. The meeting will be held inside the library
- Wild Weird Wonderful Maine virtual presentation by author Earl Brechlin on Tuesday November 9th at 6PM. Call the library at 207-934-4351 to Bert the link.
- Please note the library will be closed Thursday 11/11 in observance of Veterans Day

Community Opportunities:

- A Mystery Breakfast outing for 50+ is offered on November 9th from 9-11. Join the group and make new friends while enjoying breakfast at a surprise location. Advance reservation is required as bus seating is limited. Call Nikki at the Recreation Center 207-934-0860.
- Community Friendly Connection is pleased announce a free program, The Knitting Brigades of World War II Celebrating Community Building and Identity in Maine and the Nation presented by Holly Korda, This program will be held at the Recreation Center at the Ballpark on Tuesday November 9th at 3PM.

- OOB 365 is hosting a Community Dinner on Sunday November 14th from 1p-5p at the American Legion, 14 Imperial Street. The menu features featuring turkey and roast pork and lots of sides and deserts! All are welcome at this free event.

Check back next Monday for more happenings and events.

Have a great week!

Call
937-5611

