Charter reference— Rules of procedure, § 406.

Sec. 2-51. - Regular meetings.

The regular meetings of the town council shall be held at a location, time and on a day as determined by the council at its inaugural meeting, unless otherwise provided by Council Resolution. When any such day falls on a holiday or on election day, the regular meeting shall be held on the following day at the same time and place. The date, time and place of any regular meeting may be changed by an order or resolve passed the previous meeting upon the vote of a majority of the members of the council; provided, however, that such change is published in a newspaper having general circulation in the town at least 24 hours before the meeting.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 1; Policy of 1-15-1985; Policy of 12-2-2008; Amd. of 5-3-2016.)

Charter reference— Meetings, § 404.

Sec. 2-52. - Special meetings.

The chairperson of the town council shall call special meetings of the council whenever, in his or her opinion, the public business may require it or, in the absence, disability or refusal, by a majority of the council. Whenever a special meeting shall be called, a 24-hour actual personal notice in writing, signed by the chairperson of the council or by a majority of the council, as the case may be, shall be served upon each member of the council, either in person or by notice left at the place of residence, stating the date and the purposes for which such meeting is called. No business shall be transacted at the special meeting except as is stated in the notice. In an emergency that requires immediate action, the 24-hour notice is waived, provided the same requirements for postponement of meetings in section 2-53 are met. An emergency agenda item may be added and acted upon at a special meeting pursuant to Charter section 1004.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 2; Policy of 12-5-1989; Policy of 1-2-1996; Policy of 12-2-2008)

At a subsequent meeting, an entry shall be made in the minutes indicating reasons for the postponement, those members contacted and the preference of each member, and if an effort was made to contact local news media.

Agenda items must state clearly the scope and intent of the action to be taken. All requests for the consideration of a subject shall be in writing, stating the purpose for the discussion, the parties to be present, and as much information as possible to permit council review in advance of the meeting. All such requests other than those submitted by council members must be approved by the chairperson of the town council for inclusion on the agenda of a council meeting.

- (c) The chairperson shall take the chair at the time appointed for the council meeting, call the members to order, cause the roll to be called, and, a quorum being present, proceed to business.
- (d) At each meeting, the minutes of the preceding meeting shall be read unless the reading is dispensed with by consent of majority of the members of the council present. If no objection is made to the minutes, a majority vote of the council shall declare them approved. Otherwise any amendments to the minutes as well as the amended minutes as a whole must be approved by a majority of the members present at the meeting to which the minutes pertain. The secretary shall furnish each council member with a copy of the minutes of the preceding meeting no less than two business days prior to a regular meeting.

Sec. 2-66. - Rule of debate.

- (a) When a question is under debate by the town council, the chairperson shall receive no motion except as follows:

  - (2) For the previous question;
  - (3) To lay on the table;
  - (4) To postpone to a day certain;
  - (5) To refer to a committee or some administrative official;
  - (6) To amend; or

(7) To remove without prejudice.

(b) The several motions in subsection (a) of this section shall have precedence in the order in which they are cited.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 16; Policy of 12-2-2008; Policy of 11-19-2012)

Sec. 2-67. - Motions.

When a motion is made and seconded at a meeting of the town council, it shall be read by the secretary before debate. A motion may not be withdrawn by the mover without the consent of the member seconding it.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 17; Policy of 12-2-2008)

Sec. 2-68. - Motion to adjourn; lay on table.

The chairperson of the town council shall consider a motion to adjourn as always in order except on immediate repetition, and that motion and the motion to lay on the table or to take them from the table shall be decided without debate.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 18; Policy of 12-2-2008)

Sec. 2-69. - Motion for previous question.

Upon the motion for the previous question being made and seconded, the chairperson of the town council shall submit the question in the following form: "Shall the main question be put?" And all debate upon the main question shall be suspended until the motion for the previous question shall be decided. After the adoption of the motion for the previous question by a majority vote, the sense of the council shall be forthwith taken upon all pending amendments, and then upon the main question.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 19; Policy of 12-2-008)

Sec. 2-70. - Debate or amendment of motion for previous question.

No debate by the town council shall be allowed on a motion for the previous question; neither is it susceptible to amendment. All questions of order arising incidentally thereon must be decided without discussion, whether appeal is had from the chair or not.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 20; Policy of 12-2-2008)

Sec. 2-71. - Motion for referral.

At a meeting of the town council, a motion for referral to a committee or administrative official, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments of the main question.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 21; Policy of 12-2-2008)

Sec. 2-72. - Motion to table.

The council may table an agenda item by any of the following three (3) motions:

- (1) Motion to lay on the table. This motion is not debatable and not subject to amendment. The effect of this motion is to continue the agenda item until the next meeting of the council. There is no limit on the number of times an agenda item may be continued by a motion to lay on the table.
- (2) Motion to postpone to a day certain. This motion may be amended as to the postponement date and debate is allowed.
- (3) Motion to remove without prejudice. This motion is not debatable and not subject to amendment. If passed, the effect of the motion is that the principal question is deemed lost. However, that does not preclude the reintroduction of the principal question as a new agenda item for a subsequent town council meeting.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 22; Policy of 12-2-2008; Policy of 3-15-2011; Policy of 11-19-2012)

Sec. 2-73. - Reconsideration of vote.

When a vote is passed by the town council, it shall be in order for any member who voted in the majority, or in the negative on a tie vote, to move a reconsideration thereof at the same meeting or the next stated meeting, but not afterwards; when a motion of reconsideration is decided, that vote shall not be reconsidered. No motion to reconsider a vote passed at a previous meeting shall be in order for consideration at the next meeting unless an item to that effect is contained on the agenda for such next meeting. A petition once presented to and finally acted upon by the town council shall not again be presented to the council in the same or substantially the same form for a period of one year next succeeding the council's final action on the original petition. A member of the town council, voting with the majority on the original petition, shall be privileged to reintroduce such a petition as an item on the agenda for a subsequent council meeting.

Sec. 2-74. - Manner of speaking.

When a council member desires to speak, he or she shall respectfully address the chairperson and confine him or herself to the question under debate.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 25; Policy of 12-2-2008)

Sec. 2-76. - Question of order.

If a council member is called to order while he or she is speaking, he or she shall cease speaking immediately until the question of order is determined. If ruled to be in order, he or she shall be permitted to proceed. If ruled to be not in order, he or she shall remain silent or shall alter his or her remarks so as to comply with the action by the council.

(Policy of 1-6-1977, § 26; Policy of 12-2-2008)

Sec. 2-77. - Procedure for addressing council.

Any person wishing to address the town council will be given an opportunity to do so in accordance with the following procedures:

- (1) Persons wishing to address the council on an item which appears on the agenda shall wait until the chairperson announces the consideration of such item, at which time they may address the council on that particular item. Any person making personal, impertinent, and slanderous remarks or who becomes boisterous while attending the council meeting shall be removed from the room if a police officer is so directed by the chairperson.
