

Here's what's happening in OOB!

Week of September 23rd, 2023

Community Events and Activities:

- Next Saturday plan to attend Fall Fest at Veterans Memorial Park. On Saturday 9/30 from 10-2 Town Departments, local businesses and non profits will gather together and provide information and entertainment for all.
- It's not too soon to be thinking about Halloween! OOB365 presents their annual Trail of Terror weekends beginning October 6th. This years CarnEVIL of Souls will be at Aquaboggin on Rte 1. You can purchase tickets on their website or at the gate $20 or $10 for kids under 10.

The Libby Memorial Library:

- Traveling Tide Pool Friends, hosted by UNE's Marine Science Team, will be at the library this Saturday 9/23 at 10:30AM. Learn about tide pools and the many creatures that live in them, followed by a chance to get up close to some of these tide pool critters. This event is free and open to all with no preregistration.
- The Libby Library Book Club meets the first week of each month. There is still time to read the book selected for the October 4th meeting. Pick up a copy of The Day the World Came to Town by Jim DeFede and join in on 10/4.
- Now that the kids are back in school the library would like you to know about the weekly adult activities they offer. Tuesdays at 11:30 is Brown Bag Book Lunch and then Mahjong is at 2. On Thursdays The Creative Fiber Club meets at 2. Come on down and join in!

Town Business:

- All new trash and recycle bins have been delivered. Please note the new pick up day for your street on the pamphlet attached to your new bins.
- Town Hall is under construction. Please use the lower lot on Imperial Ave as parking in the upper lot is limited to handicap parking.

Check back next Friday for more happenings and events.
Have a great week!
