As a result of this change, two existing State Programs benefiting low-income Seniors have been being expanded:

- Property Tax Fairness Credit
- Property Tax Deferral Program

Any questions or concerns regarding this program should be directed to your legislative representatives. To find your Representative, please visit <https://legislature.maine.gov/senate/> or contact Maine Revenue Services, Property Tax Division at 207-624-5000.

The Homestead Exemption is $25,000 for April 1, 2023.

If you have a Homestead Exemption in Old Orchard Beach and sell your property and directly purchase another property in Old Orchard Beach, it is your responsibility to either advise the Assessing Office in writing whether you want the Homestead Exemption transferred to the newly purchased property or complete a new Homestead Exemption application with your new information. In order to qualify, you must meet all of the following criteria:

UPDATE - Property Tax Stabilization Program for Senior Citizens:

The LD 290 "Property Tax Stabilization for Senior Citizens" program, enacted in August 2022 was repealed by the Maine legislature on July 6, 2023, with an effective date of October 11, 2023. The repeal of this program means there will be no reapplication process and no need to follow-up with the Assessing Office to obtain/complete an application.

As a result of this change, two existing State Programs benefiting low-income Seniors have been being expanded:

- Property Tax Fairness Credit
- Property Tax Deferral Program

Any questions or concerns regarding this program should be directed to your legislative representatives. To find your Representative, please visit <https://legislature.maine.gov/senate/> or contact Maine Revenue Services, Property Tax Division at 207-624-5000.

This application period for this program is January 1st through April 1st. The 2023 filing period has ended; 2024 Application will be posted in January, 2024.

The Homestead Exemption is $25,000 for April 1, 2023.

If you have a Homestead Exemption in Old Orchard Beach and sell your property and directly purchase another property in Old Orchard Beach, it is your responsibility to either advise the Assessing Office in writing whether you want the Homestead Exemption transferred to the newly purchased property or complete a new Homestead Exemption application with your new information. The Homestead Exemption application must be submitted to the Town Hall by April 1st following the sale and purchase, to qualify for the Homestead Exemption.

The Homestead Exemption application is available at the Town Hall or you may download the application at www.maine.gov/revenue/forms/property/apps/homesteadapp.pdf.

In order to qualify, you must meet all of the following criteria:

The repeal of this program means there will be no reapplication process and no need to follow-up with the Assessing Office to obtain/complete an application.

As a result of this change, two existing State Programs benefiting low-income Seniors have been being expanded:

- Property Tax Fairness Credit
- Property Tax Deferral Program

Any questions or concerns regarding this program should be directed to your legislative representatives. To find your Representative, please visit <https://legislature.maine.gov/senate/> or contact Maine Revenue Services, Property Tax Division at 207-624-5000.

The Homestead Exemption is $25,000 for April 1, 2023.

If you have a Homestead Exemption in Old Orchard Beach and sell your property and directly purchase another property in Old Orchard Beach, it is your responsibility to either advise the Assessing Office in writing whether you want the Homestead Exemption transferred to the newly purchased property or complete a new Homestead Exemption application with your new information. The Homestead Exemption application must be submitted to the Town Hall by April 1st following the sale and purchase, to qualify for the Homestead Exemption.

In order to qualify, you must meet all of the following criteria:

UPDATE - Property Tax Stabilization Program for Senior Citizens:

The LD 290 "Property Tax Stabilization for Senior Citizens" program, enacted in August 2022 was repealed by the Maine legislature on July 6, 2023, with an effective date of October 11, 2023. The repeal of this program means there will be no reapplication process and no need to follow-up with the Assessing Office to obtain/complete an application.

As a result of this change, two existing State Programs benefiting low-income Seniors have been being expanded:

- Property Tax Fairness Credit
- Property Tax Deferral Program

Any questions or concerns regarding this program should be directed to your legislative representatives. To find your Representative, please visit <https://legislature.maine.gov/senate/> or contact Maine Revenue Services, Property Tax Division at 207-624-5000.

This application period for this program is January 1st through April 1st. The 2023 filing period has ended; 2024 Application will be posted in January, 2024.

If you have a Homestead Exemption in Old Orchard Beach and sell your property and directly purchase another property in Old Orchard Beach, it is your responsibility to either advise the Assessing Office in writing whether you want the Homestead Exemption transferred to the newly purchased property or complete a new Homestead Exemption application with your new information. As a result of this change, two existing State Programs benefiting low-income Seniors have been being expanded:

- Property Tax Fairness Credit
- Property Tax Deferral Program

Any questions or concerns regarding this program should be directed to your legislative representatives. To find your Representative, please visit <https://legislature.maine.gov/senate/> or contact Maine Revenue Services, Property Tax Division at 207-624-5000.

The repeal of this program means there will be no reapplication process and no need to follow-up with the Assessing Office to obtain/complete an application.

As a result of this change, two existing State Programs benefiting low-income Seniors have been being expanded:

- Property Tax Fairness Credit
- Property Tax Deferral Program

Any questions or concerns regarding this program should be directed to your legislative representatives. To find your Representative, please visit <https://legislature.maine.gov/senate/> or contact Maine Revenue Services, Property Tax Division at 207-624-5000.

This application period for this program is January 1st through April 1st. The 2023 filing period has ended; 2024 Application will be posted in January, 2024.

The Homestead Exemption is $25,000 for April 1, 2023.

If you have a Homestead Exemption in Old Orchard Beach and sell your property and directly purchase another property in Old Orchard Beach, it is your responsibility to either advise the Assessing Office in writing whether you want the Homestead Exemption transferred to the newly purchased property or complete a new Homestead Exemption application with your new information. The Homestead Exemption application must be submitted to the Town Hall by April 1st following the sale and purchase, to qualify for the Homestead Exemption.

The Homestead Exemption application is available at the Town Hall or you may download the application at www.maine.gov/revenue/forms/property/apps/homesteadapp.pdf.

In order to qualify, you must meet all of the following criteria:

UPDATE - Property Tax Stabilization Program for Senior Citizens:

The LD 290 "Property Tax Stabilization for Senior Citizens" program, enacted in August 2022 was repealed by the Maine legislature on July 6, 2023, with an effective date of October 11, 2023. The repeal of this program means there will be no reapplication process and no need to follow-up with the Assessing Office to obtain/complete an application.

As a result of this change, two existing State Programs benefiting low-income Seniors have been being expanded:

- Property Tax Fairness Credit
- Property Tax Deferral Program

Any questions or concerns regarding this program should be directed to your legislative representatives. To find your Representative, please visit <https://legislature.maine.gov/senate/> or contact Maine Revenue Services, Property Tax Division at 207-624-5000.

This application period for this program is January 1st through April 1st. The 2023 filing period has ended; 2024 Application will be posted in January, 2024.
